Reception.

The reception give Thursday aftermoon at the handsome Keith residence on Brigham street by Miss Keith and Mrs. James X. Ferguson was one of the most brilliant of the season. The rare beauty of the furnishings, the tall mirrors, which reflected palms and flowers of every variety, the checkered light from the stained glass windows, created a scene of loveliness seldom surpassed. The Anderson-Lamson quartette was stationed in the large reception hall, behind a screen of palms. A background of nasturtiums banking the martel lent delicate fragrance to the rooms. The parlor was gorgeous in red roses. In the library pink and white carnations prevailed. A punch bowl, surrounded by the fragrant flowers, was presided over by Mrs. Roscoe Channing, assisted by Miss Laura Shearman. Mrs. Montague Ferry, Miss Thorn, Miss Burke, Mrs. Walter Filer, Mrs. J. T. Harris, Miss Dern and Miss illian assisted in the dining room, polished table held a centerpiece tweet peas, encircled with lagis of ideal veiling tied with pink satin ribbons. At each end of the table were large silver trays containing coffee and ices. Wherever opportunity afforded were laxuriant palms and clusters of sweet peas. The hostesses were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Bamberger, Mrs. Robert Smith, Miss Judge and Miss Margaret Keith. The reception hours were from 2 till 6 and fully 300 ladies were entertained.
